

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA 2022 EMERGENCY PAID SICK LEAVE NOTICE AND REQUEST FORM

Section I of this form provides important information regarding University employees' entitlement to 2022 Emergency Paid Sick Leave (2022 EPSL). 2022 EPSL provides employees with additional leave, and it provides eligible employees with additional time to use any remaining hours from their 2021 Emergency Paid Sick Leave (2021 EPSL) entitlement.

2022 EPSL is available February 19, 2022 through September 30, 2022. If an employee took any leave between January 1, 2022 and February 18, 2022 for one or more of the qualifying reasons, the employee may request that the University allow them to retroactively use 2022 EPSL as described in Section I.E. below. If an employee has a block EPSL leave in progress on September 30, 2022, the employee will be allowed to finish that block leave using any remaining 2021 or 2022 EPSL entitlement.

2022 EPSL is available for immediate use effective February 19, 2022. An employee may request this leave orally or in writing by filling out Section II. The signed form should be returned to the employee's supervisor.

Many terms used below have specific meanings. If a term is italicized, it is defined in Appendix A.

I. 2022 EPSL – Background Information

An eligible employee may use EPSL during the 2022 EPSL period if the University has work for the employee and one of the six qualifying reasons below prevents the employee from being able to perform that work, either under normal circumstances at their normal worksite or by means of telework.

A. Qualifying Reasons

An employee may use EPSL during the 2022 EPSL period if one or more of the following reasons apply:

Reason 1 (Quarantine or Isolation Period):

The employee is unable to work or telework because the employee is subject to a quarantine or isolation period related to COVID-19 as defined by an order or guidance of the California Department of Public Health, the federal Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, or a local public health officer with jurisdiction over the workplace.

Reason 2 (Isolate or Self-Quarantine):

The employee is unable to work or telework because the employee has been advised by a health care provider to isolate or self-quarantine due to COVID-19.

Reason 3 (Testing, Diagnosis, and/or Vaccination):

The employee is unable to work or telework because of any of the following:

- a. The employee is experiencing symptoms of COVID-19 and is seeking a medical diagnosis.
- b. The employee has been exposed to COVID-19 and is seeking or awaiting the results of a diagnostic test for, or a medical diagnosis of, COVID-19.
- c. The University has requested that the employee obtain a diagnostic test for, or a medical diagnosis of, COVID-19, and the employee is seeking or awaiting those results.

- d. The employee is attending an appointment for themselves or a family member to receive a vaccine or vaccine booster for protection against COVID-19.
- e. The employee is experiencing symptoms, or caring for a family member experiencing symptoms, related to a COVID-19 vaccine or vaccine booster.

Reason 4 (Caring for a Family Member):

The employee is unable to work or telework because they are caring for a family member who is either subject to a quarantine or isolation period related to COVID-19 (as defined by an order or guidance of the California Department of Public Health, the federal Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, or a local public health officer with jurisdiction over the workplace) or who has been advised by a health care provider to self-quarantine or isolate due to COVID-19.

Reason 5 (Closure of School/Child Care):

The employee is unable to work or telework because the employee is caring for their child whose school, place of care, or child care provider is closed or otherwise unavailable for reasons related to COVID-19.

Reason 6 (Positive Test)

The employee is unable to work or telework because the employee tests positive for COVID-19 or because the employee is caring for a family member who tests positive for COVID-19.

B. Eligibility for 2022 EPSL

All employees are eligible for 2022 EPSL if one or more of the six qualifying reasons apply. Employees hired on or before September 30, 2021 who did not exhaust their 2021 EPSL entitlement are also eligible to use any remaining 2021 EPSL entitlement during the 2022 EPSL period if one or more of the six qualifying reasons apply.

C. Amount of Potential 2022 EPSL Entitlement

2022 EPSL provides all employees with new leave, and it also provides eligible employees with additional time to use any remaining hours from their 2021 EPSL entitlement.

1. Potential length of time an employee may take EPSL during the 2022 EPSL period:
 - a. New Leave for All Employees: 80 hours for full-time employees and the two-week equivalent for part-time employees (capped at 80 hours). Under certain circumstances, full-time firefighters may be entitled to more than 80 hours.
 - b. Remaining 2021 EPSL Entitlement: All employees hired on or before September 30, 2021 are entitled to use any hours remaining from their 2021 EPSL entitlement during the 2022 EPSL period.
 - c. Examples: If a full-time employee used 40 hours of their 80-hour 2021 EPSL entitlement, that employee may use 120 hours during the 2022 EPSL period (40 remaining 2021 EPSL hours + 80 new hours). If a full-time employee did not use any of their 80-hour 2021 EPSL entitlement, that employee may use 160 hours during the 2022 EPSL period (80 remaining 2021 EPSL hours + 80 new hours). If a full-time employee exhausted their 2021 EPSL entitlement or was never eligible for 2021 EPSL, that employee may use 80 hours of 2022 EPSL.

2. Amount of pay an eligible employee will receive during 2022 EPSL:
 - a. The employee will receive their regular rate of pay when using EPSL during the 2022 EPSL period.

D. How EPSL May Be Taken During the 2022 EPSL Period

1. Non-exempt employees who are teleworking may take EPSL as a block leave or intermittently in increments of at least one hour.
2. Exempt employees who are teleworking may take EPSL as a block leave or intermittently in whole day increments.
3. Employees working onsite may take EPSL for any reason as a block leave but may only take EPSL intermittently if taking leave for Reason 3(d) (vaccination), Reason 3(e) (vaccine symptoms), or Reason 5 (school closure). When taking EPSL intermittently for any of these reasons, non-exempt employees may take EPSL in increments of at least one hour, and exempt employees may take EPSL in whole day increments.
4. For public health reasons, employees working onsite who are taking EPSL for Reason 1 (quarantine or isolation period); Reason 2 (self-quarantine); Reason 3(a) (diagnosis due to symptoms); Reason 3(b) (diagnosis due to exposure); Reason 3(c) (University-requested diagnosis); Reason 4 (caring for family member); or Reason 6 (positive test) must continue using EPSL until the employee either uses the full amount of EPSL or no longer has a qualifying reason for using EPSL.

E. Retroactive Use of 2022 EPSL

1. Retroactive Payments. If an employee took leave on or after January 1, 2022 for one or more of the qualifying reasons but was not paid their regular rate of pay during that leave, the employee may request that the University provide them with a retroactive payment using their 2022 EPSL entitlement.
2. Retroactive Leave Adjustments. If an employee used any paid leave on or after January 1, 2022 for one or more of the qualifying reasons, the employee may request that the University allow them to retroactively use 2022 EPSL for that leave and that the University credit their leave banks for the time previously debited.

F. 2022 EPSL is Protected Leave

Retaliation or discrimination against an employee requesting or using this leave is strictly prohibited. Individuals who believe they have been subjected to retaliation or discrimination can submit complaints through their local Human Resources office, Affirmative Action/Equal Employment Opportunity office, Academic Personnel office, Labor Relations office, or the University Whistleblower Hotline (800-403-4744).
